

VOLUNTEER AT THE ARC ONTARIO

“Volunteering at the homes is so rewarding for me. The residents give me so much” more than I could ever give them. - Deb Rought

Volunteers

The volunteers, community organizations, and companies who contribute their valuable time are a vital part of The Arc Ontario. We ensure you're matched with opportunities that align to your interests and the amount of time you can give.

Volunteer opportunities include:

- Sharing a hobby or talent with an individual or small group
- Assisting with recreational/ social events (bowling, bingo, sports)
- Working with senior citizens
- Working with adults in Day Services (Eberhardt Center/ Community Learning Centers)
- Assisting with art, music or horticulture activities
- Working with children at Saturday Kid's Day
- Providing companionship, friendship in a residential setting
- Working with Pet Connections (animal assisted activities)
- Working with the College Experience Program
- Assisting the Community Relations department with special events and marketing needs

Internships

College students interested in gaining experience in the field have the unique opportunity to immerse themselves in all that The Arc Ontario has to offer. The Arc Ontario has a long-standing history of facilitating learning and fostering growth in students, and has hired many interns following
